

Mozambique and the United States: Side by Side

This table provides some facts about Mozambique related to international development and compares them with the same facts about the United States.

Official Name	Republic of Mozambique	United States of America
Capital	Maputo	Washington D.C.
Area	802,000 sq. km	9,827,000 sq. km
Population (2008 est.)	21,284,700	303,824,640
Urban population %	36%	80.8%
GDP per capita (PPP, 2008 est.)	USD $990	USD $48,000
Structure of GDP
Agriculture	23.4%	1.2%
Industry	30.7%	19.8%
Services	45.9%	79%
Human Development Index Ranking (UNDP, 2009)	172	12 (out of 177 countries)
Life expectancy at birth	41 years	78.1 years
Female	40.4 years	81.1 years
Male	41.6 years	75.3 years
Total fertility rate (2000-2005)	5.5	2.0
Under five mortality rate: (per 1,000 children)	278 (1978) 145 (2005)	26 (1978) 7 (2005)
Adult literacy rate (total):	47.8	99
Female	32.7	99
Male	63.5	99
Population using improved drinking sources	43	100
Population using improved sanitation	32	100
HIV prevalence rate (ages 15-49 in 2005)	16%	0.1%
Physicians per 100,000 people	6	256
Cellular phone subscribers (per 1,000 people in 2005)	62	680
Internet users (per 1,000 people in 2005)	7	630