

Rwanda at a Glance: Facts and Figures

General

Year of Independence:	1962
Population:	9.8 million
Population Growth:	2.8 percent
Human Development Index:	161 of 177
Life Expectancy at Birth:	47 years

Economy

GDP in 2007:	$3.3 billion
GDP Growth in 2008 projected by GOR:	8 percent
GNI per Capita (Atlas method):	$370
Population Below Poverty Line:	60 percent
World Bank Doing Business Rank:	139
Official Development Assistance and Aid	$603 million in 2006
Major Foreign Exchange Earners	tourism, coffee, tea, and mining

Health

Malnutrition Prevalence (ages 0-5):	45 percent stunting
HIV Prevalence (ages 15-49):	3.0 percent
Fertility Rate:	5.5 births per woman
Infant Mortality (per 1,000 live births):	62
Under-5 Child Mortality:	103
Maternal Mortality (deaths per 100,000):	750
Births Attended by Skilled Health Personnel:	52 percent
Contraceptive Prevalence:	27 percent

Education

Literacy Rate:	65 percent (71% for men; 60% for women)
Compulsory Education:	9 years provided free
Net Enrollment Rate (primary):	97 percent
Teacher-to-Student Ratio (primary):	74:1
Completion Rate (primary):	36 percent
Gross Enrollment Rate (lower secondary)	18 percent
Gross Enrollment Rate (upper secondary)	10 percent
Population Completed Secondary Education:	3.5 percent
Teacher-to-Student Ratio (lower secondary):	41:1
University Graduates:	0.5 percent of the population

Millennium Challenge Corporation (MCC) Indicators

Political Rights:	Failing
Civil Liberties:	Failing
Control of Corruption:	Passing
Rule of Law:	Passing
Government Effectiveness:	Passing
Voice and Accountability:	Failing
Investing in People:	Passing 3 of 5
Economic Freedom:	Passing 4 of 6